Are you or your child interested in drama? Did you know that we have a Performing Arts Ministry right here at St. Michael’s and St. Mary’s?

Following the wonderful reception of our production last season of “Solanus: A Drama Based On the Life and Times of Venerable Solanus Casey”, The John Paul II Players is producing an exciting new play this spring called “City of Kings,” a drama based on the life of St. Martin de Porres, the great saint of the poor.

The play includes music, dance, humor, and a cast of 30 - 17 men (all ages), 6 women (all ages), and 7 children (ages 10-18). Six roles for African-American adults and children. Families encouraged to audition as a group.

Please join us for this exciting production!

Auditions for children and adults
